Questions or comments

Internet access by 2020. If world

50 billion devices connecting to the

database list, click on the large yellow icon that says

headphones.

Teachers may borrow these items for one day from the library!

For additional information on this topic:

2. Understand when and why the app will track your location

- Avoid giving access to any app that asks for too many permissions, especially if

- The app (unless you opt out) allows the app to broadcast your location to anyone in your

- The app collects a ton of information, including what type of device you have, who your

- Although many apps use these options to offer additional features, an unsafe app

- many apps are not in use.

- Finally, always make sure you update your device to the latest software

Is That App Safe to Use?

Digital literacy and Internet safety information

Assistive technology is not only for students with special needs. These resources can help any student with motivation, academic skills and social sentences presented in a way that makes learning easier.

Assistive technology can help students with special needs to produce perfectly suited to advancing these forms of literacy, from e

For students, literacy now includes visual and spoken communication,

— retention and reinforces a positive learning cycle.

Boosting student motivation

Students are growing up in a world where technology is everywhere. The choices they make now can affect their future. Digital literacy and

Internet safety information

Celebrate & Inspire

4. That can be the answer to so many questions!

3. Internet each month by 2020. If world

50 billion devices connecting to the

database list, click on the large yellow icon that says

headphones.

Teachers may borrow these items for one day from the library!

For additional information on this topic:

Check the Website!